Dear Miss McGlynn:

I must bring you all up to date on Dick's status. Thelma had a letter from him, written 15 May, when he arrived in France. How wonderful he felt to be free once again. While en route he sent her a cable. So Dick is expected home sometime this week. I wouldn't be a bit surprised if he were with the fellows that landed at Staten Island yesterday. So, patiently I wait at Sampson for a telegram disclosing the homecoming of my dear brother-in-law. Prior to Dick's release, Thelma's last letter from him, was written 18 Nov. 1944.

I had a letter from George Zoulias the other day - he is now a Chief Pharmacist mate. I'll bet he looks mighty sharp in the new uniform. He didn't tell the folks at home about his advancement and went on a surprise visit. It was also some part of a Greek celebration or holiday that week - and, so a double celebration was had. I reckon his wife was mighty proud of him.

Time to go to chow now. I'm always happy to get the S.T.C. [Salem Teachers College] news. I'm sure sorry I can't make our reunion. My best regards to all.

Sincerely,
Marion
