DEDICATION

You walk into the room and stand without saying a word and I smile.
Because I know you've got a joke . . . a funny story or good news.
I'll miss your sunshine.

— Anonymous

This year we dedicate the yearbook to an exceptional Professor and Business Chair, the late Arthur J. LaPorte Jr. Professor LaPorte will sorely be missed by the students and faculty who had the honor of knowing and working with a person of his caliber.

LaPorte was a founding member of the business department at Salem State and had served as chairperson. He also served in the Continuing Education Department as well as exploring the possibility of the college offering an international Program in Business.

Professor LaPorte was a disabled veteran who saw service in the Air Force during the Korean War and was a lifetime member of the Disabled Veterans Assoc. He was also on the board of directors of the Salem Hospital and had served as president of the Salem YMCA. He was an avid sailor and traveler.

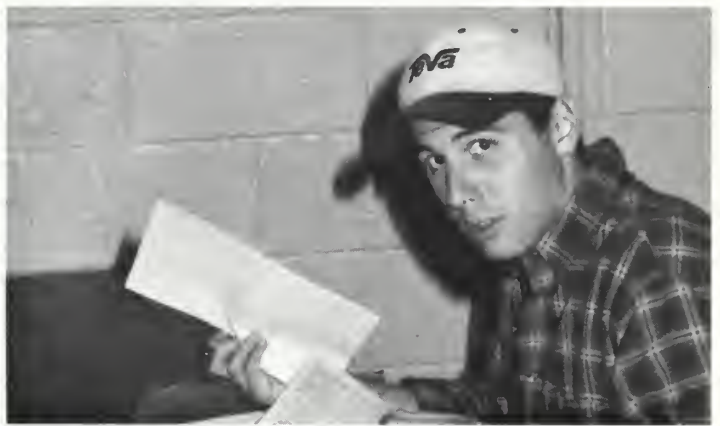

His students felt he was a wonderful gentleman as well as mentor. He took the time to listen and that is rare. He also cared, that is rarer.

Faculty felt he was irreplaceable to the school due to his extreme versatility and commitment to the students.

Prof. Arthur J. LaPorte Jr. will fondly be remembered and will hold a special place in our hearts as we embark on the next chapters of our lives.

Volleyball - This four-year performer and four-time All-MASCAC second team member served as a two-time co-captain. A member of three MASCAC Championship teams, she led her team in four statistical categories (service aces, serve reception, ball handling and blocking) her final season. She was a nominee for the college's prestigious top Student Athlete Award and selected as a team MVP at the 1994 SSC and 1995 UMaine Framington Invitational tournaments. This year's volleyball MVP is senior Kelly Fineran from Everett.

Golf - This first-year performer burst onto the collegiate scene with a bang besting a field of 240 golfers from Divisions 1, 2 and 3 to capture top honors at the New England Championship. Just the third SSC rookie to finish first at the New England's, he also helped lead the Viking linksters to the program's 28th straight bid to the NCAA Championship tournament. This year's golf MVP is freshman Jason Potty from Hopedale.

Field Hockey - This three-year performer wrote a remarkable story as a first-year goaltender. Having never previously played the position she volunteered her services after the team was without a goalie. Incredibly, she posted six shutouts and earned All-MASCAC honors en route to leading SSC to its first MASCAC title since 1989. This year's field hockey MVP is junior Jennifer Ricciuti from Marlboro.

Men's Cross Country - This four-year performer and team captain finished seventh at the Massachusetts State College Athletic Conference Championship to earn All-MASCAC honors and help the Vikings to a second place finish. A two-time All-MASCAC harrier and team MVP, he was a key member of the 1994 squad that captured the MASCAC title. This year's men's cross country MVP is senior James Pawlicki from Beverly.

Women's Cross Country - This first-year performer was the spirit who bound the team together and convinced her teammates they would improve if they trained together. She finished 12th overall at the Massachusetts State College Athletic Conference Championship while helping lead her team to a fourth place finish. This year's women's cross country MVP is freshman Melissa Gauthier from Georgetown.

Sailing - This four-year performer has been one of the program's top competitors - male or female - since the program attained varsity status a decade ago. A nominee for the college's prestigious top Student Athlete Award and two-time MVP, she was an instrumental figure in helping run the program both on and off the water. She organized successful alumni regattas and trained new team members. This year's sailing MVP is senior Ann Marshall from Newport, RI.

Women's Tennis - This four-year performer and team captain led her team in overall victories while providing strong leadership on and off the court. A player who showed continued improvement since her freshman year, she has been a Presidential Scholar and member of the college's Honors Program. This year's women's tennis MVP is senior Nancy Kirwan from Medford.

Men's Soccer - This three-year performer and two-time All-MASCAC selection played whatever position the team needed him to play. Whether it was defender, midfielder or striker he excelled and made the team better. A team captain, who was chosen MVP of three indoor tournaments, he helped lead SSC to the MASCAC title. This year's men's soccer MVP is junior Ariel Verdejo from Ossining, NY.

Women's Soccer - This four-year performer and two-time All-New England selection was SSC's top scorer with seven goals and five assists from her defender position as a senior. The Viking linksters, under second year head coach Jim Todd, started strong and finished strong. Todd's team placed 6th out of a 23-team field at the season-opening Duke Nelson Tournament at Middlebury, VT and posted a 10th place finish at the 47-team field at the season-ending New England Championships at New Seabury.

SSC's solid showing at the New England's - which included 230 players from all three NCAA divisions - was highlighted by the stellar play of freshman Jason Potty. Potty became just the third freshman in the illustrious history of the Salem State golf program to earn top medalist honors at the New England Championships. Potty fired a two-round 147 (74-73) to win the prestigious event by one stroke and earn tournament and division 3 medalist honors. SSC's second place showing among Division 3 schools at the New England's put the Vikings in strong contention for a 28th straight NCAA tournament to be determined at the conclusion of the 1996 spring season.

Third year head coach Heidi Brennan-Begin guided the Lady Vikings through a memorable season. After losing her regular season goaltender to a preseason injury and not having a second string net-minder, Brennan-Begin asked her team, "Who would like to play goalie?" Junior forward Jen Ricciuti said she would give it a try despite never having played the position before.

As they say, the rest is history.

SSC, behind the outstanding play of Ricciuti, never gave up after a tough 0-6-2 start going 7-0-1 over its final eight mathces. Included in that eight game unbeaten streak was a 4-0-1 MASCAC record and the program's first league title since 1989. Brennan-Begin became the first head coach in SSC history who played on a MASCAC title team (1984-86) and later coached on SSC team to a MASCAC championship.

The Lady Vikings, under 27-year head coach Bette Bailey, placed runners-up to Bridgewater in the MASCAC regular season standings and the postseason tournament. Other than a pair of losses to Bridgewater, SSC posted a 6-0 record against MASCAC opponents.

The highlight of the season came September 30 when Bailey registered her 300th career victory when the Lady Vikings defeated Worcester State in the 16th Annual Salem State Invitational Tournament.

Second year sailing master Jim Karalekas guided an inexperienced team through uncharted waters during the fall season. The young Vikings took their lumps early on, but came up big at the largest regatta they competed in during the season finishing sixth out of a 24-school field at the Smith Trophy.

Senior Ann Marshall turned in the top individual performance when she placed third out of 24 competitors in the qualifying round at the New England Women's Singlehanded Championships. Marshall placed 12th overall in the final round of races. At the conclusion of the season Karalekas resigned to take a non-coaching related job.

Women's Swimming - This three-year performer and two-time team MVP was the team's high point scorer the past two years. The team's captain, she has qualified for the New England Championships the past three years and is the current school record holder in the 200, 500, 1000 and 1650 freestyle events. This year's women's swimming MVP is senior Joy Kehoe from Saugus.

Men's Swimming - This two-year performer was the team's No. 1 point scorer this year. He established four school records at the New England Championships this year in the 50 & 100 freestyle events and the 50 & 100 butterfly events. He is also a member on our SSC relay teams that set school records. This year's men's swimming MVP is sophomore Rob Noonan from Stoneham.

Men's Basketball - This four-year performer was a two-time All-MASCAC selection who was chosen by the New England Basketball Coaches Association for the Unsung Hero Award in Division 3 his junior and senior seasons. A two-time co-captain, he played on four MASCAC title teams and four postseason tournament squads. A recipient of the James Twohig Sportsmanship Award, he finished his career with 1,141 points. This year's men's basketball MVP is senior Jeff Scott from Fitchburg.

Women's Basketball - This year MVP award is shared by a pair of outstanding players. The first is a four year back court performer and two-time tri-captain was chosen a Kodak regional All-American her senior year. A two-time MVP, she was a two-time All-MASCAC first team selection and two-time New England Women's Basketball Coaches Association all-star. As a senior she was among the nation's top assist leaders and was named MVP for the SSC Christmas and Muhlenberg College tournaments. One of this year's co-MVP's is senior Ivette Correa from Burlington.

The other MVP selection is a four-year performer who also served as a two-time tri-captain. She finished her career as SSC's all-time leading rebounder with 799 boards. A first team All-MASCAC pick, she was also chosen second team All-New England. In addition to being named to the SSC Christmas and Muhlenberg College all-tournament teams, she was voted MASCAC Player of the Year for the 1995-96 season. One of this year's women's basketball MVP's is senior Lauren Dottin from Cambridge.

Ice Hockey - This year's MVP award is shared by a pair of outstanding players. The first is a two-year performer and team tri-captain who was pillar of strength on defense for the Vikings. His hustling style and bone-crushing checks earned him the respect of teammates and opponents. He totaled seven goals and 21 assists. One of this year's ice hockey MVP's is senior Mike Kelleher from Belmont.

The other MVP selection is also a two-year performer who epitomized the phrase "game-breaker". The possessor of a tremendous shot, he would have tallied over 100 career points if he did not sustain a serious leg injury midway through last winter. Despite the nagging injury he still managed to "light the lamp" a dozen times while assisting on 22 scoring strikes. One of this year's ice hockey co-MVP's is senior Brain Thibodeau from Danvers.

The Vikings rolled to their sixth straight MASCAC regular season championship with a perfect 12 record. SSC continued its dominance over conference opponents by winning its fourth MASCAC postseason playoff crown since the league tournament began in 1990.

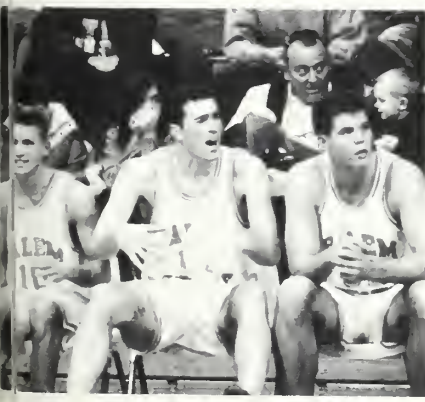

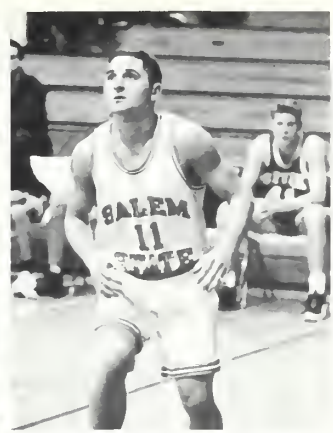

By capturing the MASCAC playoffs, SSC was awarded an automatic bid to the NCAA Division 3 tournament. It marked the eight consecutive postseason appearance by the Vikings under 9th year head coach Jimm Todd. SSC, the No. 2 seed, played in the NCAAs for the seventh time under Todd and were stunned by No. 7 Anna Maria College in the second round. The Vikings rattled off 17 victories in a row prior to the Anna Maria loss and were ranked No. 1 in the NCAA Northeast Regional final regular season poll.

The Vikings were selected for the ECAC playoffs for the 23rd consecutive season. SSC was awarded the No. 1 seed for the East Region tournament when the top three regular season finishers Middlebury, Colby and Bowdoin opted to play in the NCAA tournament.

The Viking pucksters, under the guidance of 14th year head coach Bill O'Neill, defeated No. 8 seed Holy Cross in the quarterfinals before falling to Hamilton in the semifinals. The Vikings won nine of their final 11 regular season games to place fourth. SSC also earned a piece of the MASCAC championship - its 22nd since conference play started in 1971 - with Fitchburg.

The men's swimming team, under the guidance of third year head coach Jon Lazar, experienced a rollercoaster after winning one of its first two meets, losing the next five and winning three of its last four. Undoubtedly, SSC's finest win of the season came in the final meet when the Vikings defeated Connecticut College for the first time ever. Numerous school records were broken throughout the season on the way to competing in the New England Championships.

Softball - This two-year performer has been her team's No. 1 pitcher the past two seasons while hurling an amazing 281 innings. She has posted 23 victories over the past two seasons and was SSC's second best hitter this season with a .358 batting average. She also stroked a homerun in a double-header sweep of Worcester State. This year's softball MVP is Rebecca Baker from Leominster.

Men's Tennis - A three-year performer, this individual has filled his team's No. 1 singles and No. 1 doubles positions during his entire SSC career. He possesses a strong all-around game which consists of a very powerful serve, hard-paced consistent ground strokes, and an excellent touch at the net. This year's men's tennis MVP is senior Tom Sjoberg from Oster-sund, Sweden.

Men's Track & Field - A first-year performer and transfer from William & Mary, this individual has excelled as a sprinter hurdler. He captured the 110 meter Hurdles at the New England Championships with a time of 15.07. He earned also All-MASCAC honors when he placed first in the 110 Hurdles event with a time of 15.91 at the MASCAC Championships. He has benefited from technical analysis of instant replays of his hurdling technique due to the fact that his father video tapes all of his performances. This year's men's track and field MVP is junior Albert Hill from Salem.

Baseball - This year's MVP award is shared by a pair of outstanding players. The first is a three-year performer who has done it all for the Vikings. A team captain and two-time MVP selection, he was SSC's top pitcher the past two seasons and also one of the team's top hitters. One of this year's baseball co-MVPs is senior Jeff Lambert from Marlboro.

The other MVP selection is a two-year starter who has patrolled centerfield for the Viking's. A second team All-New England pick and All-MASCAC first teamer as a junior, he was SSC's second leading homerun hitter with six in 1996. One of this year's baseball co-MVPs is senior Mike Sutera from Gloucester.

The men tracksters, under the direction of head coach Tom Derderian, placed fourth at the MASCAC Championships. SSC experienced a rough spring campaign with the cancelation of three invitational meets due to the inclement weather. However, William & Mary junior transfer Albert Hill provided a bright light for the Vikings by capturing first place in the 110 hurdles event at the MASCAC and New England Championships.

Women's Track & Field

Team Captains

The Viking netters, under the direction of head coach Grant Longley, who came out of a one-year retirement for his 26th season at the SSC helm, posted a winning record after starting the 1996 campaign with no wins in their first three matches.

SSC rolled over MASCAC opponents Bridgewater and Worcester not losing a single match against both while capturing the "myhical" MASCAC tennis title. To have an official MASCAC title five conference member institutions have programs. The Vikings also recorded shutout victories over Plymouth State and Rhode Island College. SSC posted a 7-2 mark after its 0-3 start. The Vikings' five match winning streak saw them outscore their opponents, 39-2.

Top athletes for 1995-96 honored by Salem State College

by Tom Roundy, Sports Information Director

Seniors Ivette Correa, Lauren Dottin, Tommy Doyle, Chris Fargher and Nancy Kirwan were honored by Salem State College as the top athletic performers for the 1995-96 academic year at the Varsity Club Annual Awards Banquet held May 10 at the Ellison Campus Center.

Female President's Cup recipients Correa and Dottin were Co-MVPs and all-star members on the women's basketball team which won the Massachusetts State College Athletic Conference (MASCAC) postseason tournament, advanced to the round of Sweet 16 in the NCAA playoffs and finished with a 25-4 record. Correa, a guard from Burlington, was chosen a Kodak District 1 All-American while Dottin, a forward from Cambridge, was voted MASCAC Player of the Year.

Male President's Cup recipient Doyle concluded his collegiate career as one of the most honored players in Salem State men's basketball history. The Salem native and swingman, who led the Vikings to the MASCAC regular season and postseason tournament titles, the second round of the NCAA playoffs and a 25-3 record, was tabbed a Northeast Region All-American, New England Division 3 Player of the Year and MASCAC Player of the Year. Doyle, who holds all of the college's three-point shooting records, was selected the male recipient of the Howard C. Smith Award, given annually to the top student athlete in the MASCAC.

SSC's top male student athlete Fargher, who hails from Annapolis, Maryland, was a member of the ice hockey team which finished 17-9-1 after being selected for a record 23rd straight ECAC postseason tournament. A Psychology major and three-time All-MASCAC Academic Team member, Fargher netted nine goals and picked up a half dozen assists while splitting time between forward and defense. Fargher, who worked as a carpenter three days a week during the academic year, played in 95 career games for the Vikings posting 17 goals and 25 assists.

Top female student athlete Kirwan, a four-time All-MASCAC Academic Team selection who hails from Medford, played at the No. 2 singles slot and teamed with Donna Urbaanski at No. 1 doubles for the women's tennis team. Kirwan, an Education Studies major, posted impressive records while exceling as a singles and doubles performer. Kirwan, an SSC Presidential Scholar, compiled a 32-17 won/loss career record in singles and a 28-10 career mark in doubles. She walked off the court a winner an impressive 69 per cent of the time.

Peter Doyle, a member of the class of 1958, an SSC Hall of Fame charter inductee and father of Tommy, was cited with the Richard B. "Mike" O'Keefe Memorial Award, given annually by the O'Keefe family to an individual who highly supports the college's intercollegiate athletic program. Over the past year, Mr. Doyle took it upon himself to conduct extensive historical research pretaining to the college's rich athletic tradition.
