RESPONSIVE READING

WE REMEMBER THEM

At the rising of the sun and its going down,
We remember them.

*At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
We remember them.*

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
We remember them.

At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of Summer, We remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of Autumn, We remember them.

*At the beginning of the year and at its end,
We remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now
A part of us, as We remember them.

*When we are needy and in need of strength,
We remember them.*

When we are lost and sick at heart,
We remember them.

*When we have joy we crave to share,
We remember them.*

When Jews cry out from a great distance that they
Are afraid, cold and hungry, We remember them.

*When people cry out from here or far that they are Afraid, cold and hungry, We remember them –
And we shall help.*

When a broken spirit cries out in despair,
We shall not ever again stand idly by –
As we remember them.

*(Together) As long as we live, they too will live;
For they are now a part of us, as we remember them.*

YOM HA'SHOAH READING

Each year, as we watch the Survivors' Candlelighting Ceremony, we are overwhelmed by the fact that these, our neighbors, our friends, are the remnant of a once vibrant and now destroyed European Jewish Community.

These survivors bear witness to humanity's darkest hour. They remind us that the places of unspeakable horror: Auschwitz, Dachau, Treblinka, are real...never to be forgotten...never to be repeated...an eternal reminder that we must never again stand idly by...or remain silent in the face of hatred, bigotry, racism and antisemitism.

Let us pledge to the victims, to ourselves and to the future generations that we will uphold and nourish a commitment to human rights and individual freedoms...that we will watchfully guard this legacy against prejudice and complacency...because the opposite of good is not evil - it is indifference.

STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say can you see by the dawn's early light?

What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's
last gleaming,

Whose broad stripes and bright stars through
the perilous fight,

O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming.

And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air

Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.

Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.
