Pizza Through the Ages

Pizza... one of the easiest foods to find anywhere. But good pizza, great pizza is almost impossible to find. That wasn't always the case... Well-known Italian pizza actually evolved from two cultures: the Etruscan and the Greeks. Both used bread as an edible plate for a meal. The Romans embraced their idea and created unlimited dishes based on a simple concept - great dough with good food on top. (No tomato sauce on the early pizzas - the Spaniards hadn't found tomatoes in Mexico yet.) Back then, as today at Foodee's, you might find chicken, pesto or even fruit served on baked dough.

Pizza enjoyed a heyday in America until the 1950s, but then pizza's popularity resulted in mass production featuring just one style of pizza - tomato and cheese. The spirit of pizza - a complete meal on bread eaten in a cozy atmosphere among friends - was lost.

At Foodee's, we've rediscovered what pizza used to be... flour, water, spices, extra virgin olive oil, and fresh nutritious toppings. Searching the world for great pizza - the pizza of old.

WELCOME TO FOODEE'S

First, Pick~A~Crust

Thin Crust - Similar to a French or Italian bread, this fine, white bread crust is available in both 10" and 16" sizes.

Chicago Deep Dish - It feeds the family! We make a very special dough to make a "bowl" for this meal. It's 13" in size.

Specialty Crusts ~ All 12" in diameter!

Sour Dough ~ 6 Grain Rye ~ Whole Wheat

Equaling the finest breads found in Europe, these crusts are unique in pizza today.

Calzones ~ A pizza sandwich for two! Using our fine thin crust dough we make a pizza "pocket" from our wide selection of combinations.

TAKE 'N' BAKE

On the run? No time to wait? Looking for a quick, healthy alternative meal? Then try TAKE 'N' BAKE, a freshly prepared, made-to-order pizza to bake in your home oven.

or

Create a specialty at home using our exclusive Nutra~Dough™.

Choose:

-CRUST- It's a partially baked FOODEE'S pizza crust adding your own toppings.

-DOUGH- It's an unbaked, fresh dough ball ready for gourmet preparations of your choice. (Pizza crust or fine breads made the old-fashioned way.)

PIZZA SCREEN

TAKE 'N' BAKE pizzas, crusts, and dough taste better baked with pizza screens, available at FOODEE'S. The screen lets more heat reach the bottom of the pizza and creates a uniformly crisp crust. It's made with heavy wire, edged with a metal border. Perfect for TAKE 'N' BAKE Pizzas.
